

LODGE VOICES MORE HEADS MAJORITY

Chosen Republican Leader of the Senate at Conference Yesterday.

SMALLER COMMITTEES

Democrats Will Suffer From New Rules—No Changes in Senate Chairmanships.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts was again chosen republican leader of the Senate at a conference of the republican senators at the Capitol yesterday.

The republicans completed their plans for reorganization of the new Senate by the selection of other officers of the conference and the nomination of officials of the Senate.

Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas was re-elected vice chairman of the conference, and Senator Wadsworth of New York, secretary.

Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa was nominated for President Pro Tempore of the Senate—an office he held during the last Congress. His nomination is tantamount to an election in view of the republican majority in the Senate, as are the nominations for the other officers of the Senate.

George A. Sweeney of Missouri was nominated to be secretary of the Senate, and David S. Barry to be sergeant-at-arms; both are serving now in those offices. Rev. J. J. Muir was nominated to be chaplain of the Senate.

The nominations for officers of the Senate will be presented to the Senate for action when that body meets tomorrow.

Committee assignments were left to the usual committee on committees, which Senator Lodge was authorized to appoint, together with the steering committee.

In number and personnel all Senate committees are to be reduced, under the new Senate rules ordered for this session. Preponderance of republicans in the Senate may cause the loss of a few places, but democrats, by reduced representation, will suffer the most. No changes in Senate chairmanships are planned.

There is considerable rivalry for the position on the covered foreign relations committee. All the republicans caused by selection of former Senator Fall as Secretary of Interior. Senators McKelvey of Minnesota, McCormick of Illinois and Poinsett of Washington were said to be active candidates for the position, with the chances reported to favor the latter.

WILL PASS BILL QUICKLY.

Immigration Restriction Measure

Will Be Like One Pocketed.

The immigration restriction bill, which was "pocketed" vetoed by President Wilson, will be one of the first measures introduced at the coming special session of the Sixty-seventh Congress, according to congressional leaders. It is the plan to send it to President Harding with the least possible delay, as proponents regard the measure as necessary to keep out hordes of undesirable emigrants from southern Europe.

Chairman of the Senate immigration committee, said yesterday it was improbable that his committee would have time to hold hearings on the bill, which has been gone over fully. Some slight modifications may be made, but the measure is known to desire to increase the 3 per cent limitation to 5 per cent. Another change will be the effective date of the bill, originally set for April.
